WHEN THE CIRCUIT RIDER CAME.

In the backwoods of Kentucky, in the days of long ago,

When religion was religion, not a dresy fashion show,

When the spirit of the Master fell as flames of living fire,

And the people did the singing, not a trained, artistic choir,

There was scarcely seen a ripple in life's gently flowing tide,

No events to draw the people from their daily toil aside,

Naught to set the pious spirit of the pioneers aflame,

Save upon the rare occasions when the circuit rider came.

He was usually mounted on the sorriest of nags,

All his outfit for the journey packed in leather saddle bags,

And he'd travel with the Bible or the hymn book in his hand,

Reading sacred word or singing of the happy promised land,

How the toiling wives would glory in the dinners they would spread,

And how many a hapless chicken or a turkey lost its head,

By the gleaming chopper wielded by the hand of sturdy dame,

For it wasn't very often that the circuit rider came.

All the settlement around us would be ringing with the news

And there'd be a meetin' Sunday, and we'd "taller" up our shoes,

And we'd brush our homespun dress suits, pride of every country youth,

And we'd grease our hair with marrow till it shone like golden truth,

And the frocks of linsey-woolsey would be donned by all the girls,

And with heated old fire poker they would make their corkscrew curls,

They were scarcely queens of fashion, but were lovely, just the same,

And they always looked the sweetest when the circuit rider came.

As a Prose, holy Moses! how he'd swing the living word,

How he'd draw the pious "bretherin" yet closer to the Lord,

And he'd raise the hair of sinners sitting on the backmost seat

With his fiery, lurid pictures of the everlasting heat!

We have sat in grand cathedrals, triumphs of the builder's skill,

And in great palatial Churches, "neath the organ's mellow thrill,

But they never roused within us such a reverential flame

As would burn in that old schoolhouse when the circuit rider came.

A CIRCUS'S REPUTATION.
After the great Wallace Shows had exhibited in Winchester, Va., the Daily Star of that city said, "it made a good impression. The Wallace Circus created a good reputation by exhibiting everything as advertised. The large crowds hugely enjoyed the many brilliant features of the performance. We predict that Wallace will have to have a large canvas when he visits Winchester again."

MAYSVILLE, KY., Dec. 14, 1899.
The Herb Medicine Co.—Dear Sirs: I have been a great sufferer for many years with that dread disease asthma. I tried everything that I could hear of, but never found anything that did me any good until I took Bond's Specific. MR. HORACE WILSON.

A Complimentary Notice of This Promising Young Man.

Of all the young men of whom Maysville can well be proud none stands higher than Mr. Horace Wilson, son of Mrs. Rebecca Wilson of Limestone street.

The following notice from The Green Bay (Wis.) Gazette needs no further introduction:

Mr. Horace Wilson, who has been filling the pulpit at the First Presbyterian Church during the summer months, was given a farewell reception at the Church parlors last evening by the ladies of the Church, a large part of the congregation being present. Refreshments were served and a purse as a token of appreciation was presented to the departing Preacher.

Mr. Wilson returns to the McCormick Theological Seminary at Chicago and expects to be ordained at the end of this year. His work in this city has been so satisfactory and so promising that a formal invitation was extended to him last night to return here after his ordination and accept the pastorate of the West Side Church.

It is probable that he will decide to accept the call, and the pulpit will, therefore, be filled by Ministers from adjoining cities during the winter. The pastorate will virtually be held for him until next year, a decided tribute to the excellence of his work. Mr. Wilson will preach his farewell sermon tomorrow.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Thirty Years of Suffering.

"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Halloway of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Tax receipts for 1900 are now in my hands for collection.

Does It Pay To Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Get a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boecher's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure the lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders and the troubles of those whose urinary organism is wrong in its action. That they do this is so easily proven that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public indorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case:

Mr. M. L. Spencer, grocer, of Forest avenue, says:

"For many years I was greatly troubled from the lack of proper action of the kidneys. I feared the incipient state of diabetes and learning about Doan's Kidney Pills sold at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore, I procured a box. The benefit derived from its use warranted me continuing the treatment. The results obtained in the cases of others I know as well as in my own is a guarantee of the great value of Doan's Kidney Pills."
